DAVID MARTIN AND ABIGAIL REYNOLDŞ OAKS

David Martin Oaks was born January 2, 1848 at Winter Quarters, Douglas County, Nebraska, a son of Hiram and Sarah Ann Wood Oaks. He married Abigail Mary Reynolds, March 2, 1869. David died October 27, 1894.

Abigail Mary Reynolds was born September 2, 1842 at Nunda, Livingston, New York, a daughter of William Pitt and Melissa Bardwell Reynolds.

V BEAUTIFUL UPON THE MOUNTAIN

When David was a baby his parents canto Utah. They settled finally in Midway where David grew up. He was very active in assisting to fight the Indians, and was known as an excellent marksman. He was a veteran of the Black Hawk War.

After his marriage David resided in Midway and worked with his father in the timber and saw mill business. In 1889 he as sisted his father in moving the sawmill hashley Valley. David moved his family there, where they resided permanently. It was one of two men who made trips from Ashley Valley to Heber City on snow shoes in the winter time to obtain supplies. Many times he had to race from wolf packs through the Strawberry Valley.

While still a young man, David died from pneumonia.

Abigail was very active in community life, serving both as a teacher and a mid wife. She was teaching school at the turn of her marriage to David. She had come Utah with her parents in 1853, settling in Midway. After the death of her husband she was very active as a nurse and mid-wife.

Children of David Martin and Abigail Mary Reynolds Oaks:

William Hyrum Sarah Melissa Martin Edwin.

666

DAVID MARTIN AND ABIGAIL REYNOLDS OAKS

David Martin Oaks was born January 2, 1848 at Winter Quarters, Douglas County, Nebraska, a son of Hiram and Sarah Ann Wood Oaks. He married Abigail Mary Reynolds, March 2, 1869. David died October 27, 1894.

Abigail Mary Reynolds was born September 2, 1842 at Nunda, Livingston, New York, a daughter of William Pitt and Melissa Bardwell Reynolds.

BEAUTIFUL UPON THE MOUNTAIN

When David was a baby his parents canto Utah. They settled finally in Midway where David grew up. He was very active in assisting to fight the Indians, and was known as an excellent marksman. He was a veteran of the Black Hawk War.

After his marriage David resided in Midway and worked with his father in the timber and saw mill business. In 1889 he as sisted his father in moving the sawmill. Ashley Valley. David moved his famulathere, where they resided permanently. It was one of two men who made trips from Ashley Valley to Heber City on snow shoes in the winter time to obtain supplies. Many times he had to race from wolf packs through the Strawberry Valley.

While still a young man, David died from pneumonia.

Abigail was very active in community life, serving both as a teacher and a mid wife. She was teaching school at the till of her marriage to David. She had come Utah with her parents in 1853, settling in Midway. After the death of her husband she was very active as a nurse and mid-wife.

Children of David Martin and Abigail Mary Reynolds Oaks:

William Hyrum Sarah Melissa Martin Edwin.